7.3.1 : INSTITUTIONAL DISTINCTIVENESS

NOBLE

In the pre-independence time, Raja Patawardhan of Poona governed Jamkhandi, which was a historic place. Raja Patawardhan, who had remarkable foresight and a passion for education, established an upper secondary school in a massive edifice in the middle of the city. He continued to work with and encourage the spread of education till the conclusion of his reign. In Jamkhandi, there were no higher educational institutes for candidates to pursue higher education.

Even after independence, Raja Patawardhan continued to help the area's most exemplary students by inviting them to Poona to finish their education at S. P. College and providing them board and housing. This was insufficient to cover people from all walks of life. In such circumstances, the BLDE Association took the initiative in 1963, establishing a Commerce, BHS Arts, and TGP Science College in Jamkhandi. It is housed among the majestic palace structures that dot the Jamkhandi hillocks. The College was previously associated with Karnataka University in Dharwad but has recently transferred to Rani Channamma University in Belagavi.
